

Who is a Veteran;

- If you served or serving then you are a Veteran.

From the very start of your enlistment in Australia Defence Force, you were aware at any time you could be called up to serve in a war zone, so we salute you for your courage in joining.

No matter where you served, Australians respect and value you for your service in protecting our country and our values.

Iluka/Woombah Veterans;

- honour those who have served in a War zone and those Veterans who served on the home front to support those who were in a War zones.
- honour those who joined the service of their own accord and those who were conscripted for National Service, who had to sacrifice their profession, trade and families to protect our values and country

No matter how your experience was in the ADF, the most important fact now is;

Iluka/Woombah Veterans are here for you.

You should all be proud that you have served.

You have earned the right to March on Anzac Day and you should, regardless of how many medals you have or whether you serviced overseas or not.

Iluka/Woombah Veterans gives thanks to all those who have served in our Defence Forces and the families that support them.

We Salute you.
